

John and Savannah are having dinner, she open a bottle of red wine, pouring out a glass for each of them.

John

So you drink now? .

Savannah

Just a glass or two at dinner.

Tim got me started
a couple years ago.

(beat)

Why are you looking at me like that?

John

What do you mean?

How am I looking at you?

Savannah

Differently.

John

I don't know, how do you want me to look at you?

You're different.

(beat)

Savannah

Oh...

John

I don't know--

I don't know why I came here.

I mean, what are we doing?

(beat)

I mean, we're sitting here and we're eating and we're talking,

but no one's actually
saying anything.

Savannah

What do you want me to say?
What do you want to talk about?

John

Why didn't you call?
(beat)
Why didn't you call me?

I mean, did I not deserve any more explanation than ...
that letter?

You couldn't have called me?

You couldn't have given me
some sort of chance to,
like, change your mind?

Don't you think you owed me that?

Savannah

I couldn't.

John

You couldn't?

You thought that little of me that you couldn't have just called me.

Why?

Savannah

Because I couldn't.

John

Give me an answer.

Why? Why not?

Savannah

Because I couldn't.

John

I want an answer.

Savannah

Because just hearing your voice,
I would have changed my mind.

She stands up, walk a little bit and turn back.

Is that what you
wanna hear, John?

Is that what you came
all this way to hear from me?

You think it was tough out there?

And, what, you think it was easy for me without you?

You thought that every single day it wasn't a goddamn marathon
of my life without you?

Tim was sick.
He was sick and he needed me.

He needed me to help him.
He needed me to help him
with Alan, with everything.

I was alone and I had no idea what I was doing.

I didn't plan this. I didn't know that it was gonna happen to me.

But it did.

But you don't think I've tried—?

John stands up and walks toward her.

I picked up the phone
a thousand times to try to call you.

You think that I really wanna be standing here in front of you like this?

They hug

[SOBBING]

I had no choice.

John
I know.
