

CRAZY HEART – APOLOGY

BAD:
Jean?

JEAN:
What are you doin' here?

BAD:
Just listen to me. I'm sorry. With all my heart, I'm sorry. I'm sober. Detox, Antabuse-the whole bit. It woke me up.

JEAN:
That's good Bad.

BAD: Mmm, no, not Bad. I'm goin' back to Otis-my given name. No more Bad. I'm changin' everything.

JEAN:
That's good.

BAD:
How's Buddy doin'?

JEAN:
He's sleeping. He's all right.

BAD:
Can you ever forgive me?

JEAN:
God, I knew what-I knew what the risks were with you. And I took 'em ...
Because – 'cause I love you, and – Puttin' Buddy in your hands – I don't know that I'll ever be able to get over that.

BAD:
Well, I'm different now. You know?

JEAN:
-I am too

BAD:
-Let me show you.

JEAN:

-You're not listening to me.

BAD:

We can start over, Jean

JEAN:

Listen to me. I am so – I'm truly happy for you. I hope you make a really nice life for yourself. But Buddy and I can't be a part of it.

BAD:

But I love both of you so much.

JEAN:

If that's true, you'll leave us alone, all right?

BAD:

Oh, come on, Jean. Now don't say that. Jean? Jean? Jean! Jeannie?
